

University of Cape Town Lung Institute

ALLERGY & IMMUNOLOGY UNIT

RESEARCH NURSE

If you're a suitably qualified nurse who is curious, detail-driven, and passionate about improving patient care beyond the bedside—this could be your next step!

The Allergy and Immunology Unit at the University of Cape Town Lung Institute is looking for a Research Nurse to support impactful clinical research that directly improves patient outcomes—especially in paediatric care.

This role is offered under the University of Cape Town Lung Institute's own employment terms and conditions, which are separate from UCT conditions of service.

★ What you bring:

- Qualification in General Nursing (Certificate/Diploma/Degree)
- 2 - 5 years' experience in clinical research
- Strong Computer literacy
- Valid Driver's License (essential)
- Fluency in English and isiXhosa

This isn't just clinical work; you'll be part of research that advances the understanding allergies and immune-related diseases, improves treatment approaches for real patients and combines science, care, and community engagement.

🎯 What you'll own:

- Coordinating and managing study participants
- Screening and enrolling participants into clinical studies
- Scheduling and conducting follow-ups (clinic, telephonic, and community visits)
- Performing clinical procedures (vitals, ECGs, specimen collection, phlebotomy, IV lines)
- Preparing and managing laboratory samples and study documentation
- Maintaining accurate and compliant study records and logs
- Supporting research activities across multiple clinical sites
- Working closely with clinical staff, researchers, and stakeholders

📍 Role Information:

- Fixed Term Contract (12 Months)
- Monday to Friday | 40 hours per week
- Based in Masiphumelele, with work across multiple sites

If you're passionate about research, patient care, and making a meaningful difference—we'd love to hear from you. Start your journey here to complete the online application and submit your CV, cover letter, and 2–3 contactable references.

🕒 Closing Date: 30 April 2026

Thank you for your interest in this opportunity. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. If you haven't heard from us within 30 days of the closing date, please consider your application unsuccessful.
